

INVITATION to a colloquium on CLOUD COMPUTING
to be hosted in JOHANNESBURG on June 12 and in CAPE TOWN on June 13

“Potential economic impact of cloud technology on emerging markets and the importance of the policy and regulatory environment”

FACILITATOR

Leon Louw, Executive Director, Free Market Foundation

SPEAKERS

Mike Schüssler | Director, Economists

The ECONOMIC IMPACT of cloud computing: What are the job creation and economic benefits for government and business?

Gary Moore | Legal consultant, Free Market Foundation

The REGULATORY ENVIRONMENT: Does it help or hinder cloud services in South Africa?

Mark Heyink | Information Attorney / Information Security Consultant

POPI (Protection of Personal Information Act): What are its implications for cloud services in South Africa?

PROGRAMME

- 10h30-10h50 Tea, coffee, pastries
- 10h50-11h00 Leon Louw (setting the scene)
- 11h00-11h30 Mike Schüssler (presentation | Q&A)
- 11h30-12h00 Gary Moore (presentation | Q&A)
- 12h00-12h30 Mark Heyink (presentation | Q&A)
- 12h30-14h30 In-depth participant discussion over finger lunch

Please note: The colloquia are free of charge

Please note: We have a small flights-and-accommodation budget for out-of-towners (contact Gail Day)

JOHANNESBURG COLLOQUIUM

10h30-14h30 (including finger lunch) | Wednesday, 12 June 2013 | JOHANNESBURG (Hotel Balalaika)

If you wish to join us, RSVP via <http://www.fmfevents.co.za/Event.aspx?ID=47&Code=e908f> essential as seating limited

CAPE TOWN COLLOQUIUM

10h30-14h30 (including finger lunch) | Thursday, 13 June 2013 | CAPE TOWN (Hotel Fire & Ice!)

If you wish to join us, RSVP via <http://www.fmfevents.co.za/Event.aspx?ID=48&Code=3465f> essential as seating limited

Gail Day | Projects Manager | 011 884 0270 | gailday.fmf@mweb.co.za